How we'll use your personal data and why

Of course, you are free to opt out of hearing from us by any of these channels at any time.

To send you relevant, personalised communications by post or email in relation to updates, offers and services.

To perform any contract, we've agreed with you. If we don't collect your personal data during this process, we won't be able to provide the required services and comply with our legal obligations.

To respond to your queries or complaints

Handling the information, you sent enables us to respond. We may also keep a record of these to inform any future communication with us and to demonstrate how we communicated with you throughout. We do this on the basis of our contractual obligations to you, our legal obligations and our legitimate interests in providing you with the best service and understanding how we can improve our service based on your experience

To protect our business from fraud and other illegal activities. We'll do all of this as part of our legitimate interest.

Service messages will not include any promotional content and do not require prior consent when sent by email or text message. If we do not use your personal data for these purposes, we would be unable to comply with our legal obligations.

To send you survey and feedback requests to help improve our service

How we protect Your Personal Data

We know how much data security matters to all our clients. With this in mind we will treat your data with the utmost care and take all appropriate steps to protect it. Our computers and mobile devices are all password protected.

We regularly monitor our systems for possible vulnerabilities and constantly review our security

How long will we keep your personal data

Whenever we collect or process your personal data, we'll only keep it for as long as is necessary for the purpose for which it was collected.

At the end of that retention period, your data will either be deleted completely or anonymised, for example by aggregation with other data so that it can be used in a non-identifiable way for statistical analysis and business planning.

Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) requires us to keep records of contracts, payments and invoices for 7 years. We will therefore normally hold information of any contracts for this long.
